

BÖS to host fundraiser for Des Moines Public Schools' Culinary Arts and Restaurant Management program

*19 April 2010
Des Moines, Iowa*

BÖS restaurant at the Renaissance Des Moines Savery Hotel will host dinner on May 19 from 5:00 to 9:00 p.m. to raise money for the Des Moines Public Schools' Culinary Arts and Restaurant Management program. With the guidance of Chef John Andres, the students will prepare a three-course prix fixe menu comprised of dishes that they will be judged upon at competition in July.

BÖS will offer full dinner service in addition to the students' menu priced at $29. Proceeds will allow the students to attend a national competition for Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) in Chicago.

The Culinary Arts program at Central Campus under the direction of Elaine Wolf prepares students for employment in the hospitality and food service industry. Students earn one year of credit from Des Moines Area Community College through successful completion of the program. The DMPS culinary students represent Iowa annually at various national competitions.

FCCLA is a nonprofit national career and technical student organization for young men and women in Family and Consumer Sciences Education in public and private schools through grade twelve. FCCLA's mission is to promote personal growth and leadership development through character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communications, practical knowledge, and career preparation.

BÖS opened in the Renaissance Des Moines Savery Hotel in March 2009 and serves contemporary Midwest cuisine, featuring local products in made-from-scratch upscale and comfort food preparations. BÖS serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner daily. Further information is located at <http://www.BOSDesMoines.com>.
